

Biography

Esther's work is in collections throughout the United States. She has had many one-woman exhibits and has received awards in group shows and international competitions. Presently, she is the owner of The Spezzano Art Gallery of Long Beach, California. Esther has been an exhibiting artist and member of the SCA Project Gallery, Pomona, California. She has been an exhibitor and studio holder in the Santora Arts Building in Santa Ana, and was selected in 2004 for the Envisioning The Future Project in Pomona, California, under the direction of Judy Chicago. She also exhibits annually in the Artists Tours in Morongo Valley. Esther has worked as an architectural illustrator for many years and as an art teacher for Santa Ana Public Schools, Rancho Santiago Community College, and Copper Mountain Community College.

Born and raised in Boston, Massachusetts; graduated Massachusetts College of Art, BFA; painting major. Graduate classes in art at University of Arizona, Tucson and in education at the University of California, Irvine and Bridgewater State College, MA.